Dear Parents/Guardians

Re: Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme – Bronze Level Training Weekend

We are delighted your child has decided to participate in the Duke of Edinburgh Bronze Award. There will be 2 days of training in the New Year, which is a compulsory requirement of the programme.

Details for the training days are as follows:

Date: Saturday 12 and Sunday 13 January 2019
Venue: Esher High School, More Lane
Arrival time: 9.00am
Finish time: 4.00pm
Dress: Students may wear their own clothes
Some aspects of the course will be delivered outside, so sensible footwear and warm clothing should be worn
Waterproof clothing is advisable
Lunch: Students should bring a packed lunch, water bottle (and snacks)
Equipment: Pen/notebook for writing/note taking; all other equipment will be provided

They should sign in at the Main Reception on arrival and head straight to the Auditorium.

As these training days are a compulsory part of the Duke of Edinburgh programme, if your child is unable to attend either or one of the days, please contact the Duke of Edinburgh Co-ordinators on the email addresses below as soon as possible.

Included are a reminder of the expedition and payment dates below:
