

Resources for Home Learning

Like many schools, we are setting our own online learning. However, if you need something else to add variety to the day, we hope you will find some of these links helpful:

Khan Academy

<https://www.khanacademy.org>

Especially good for maths and computing for all ages but other subjects at Secondary level. (Note this uses the US grade system but it's mostly common material.)

BBC Learning

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/learning/coursesearch/>

This site is old and no longer updated and yet there's so much still available, from language learning to BBC Bitesize for revision. No TV license required except for content on BBC iPlayer.

Futurelearn

<https://www.futurelearn.com>

Free to access 100s of courses, only pay to upgrade if you need a certificate in your name (own account from age 14+ but younger learners can use a parent account).

Seneca

<https://www.senecalearning.com>

For students revising at GCSE or A level. Tons of free revision content. Paid access to higher level material.

Openlearn

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/>

Free taster courses aimed at those considering Open University and everyone can access it. Adult level, but some e.g. nature and environment courses could well be of interest to young people.

Blockly

<https://blockly.games>

Learn computer programming skills - fun and free.

Scratch

<https://scratch.mit.edu/explore/projects/games/>

Creative computer programming.

National Geographic Kids

<https://www.natgeokids.com/uk/>

Activities and quizzes for younger children.

Duolingo

<https://www.duolingo.com>

Learn languages for free. Web or app versions are available.

Mystery Science

<https://mysteryscience.com>

Free science lessons.

The Kids Should See This

<https://thekidshouldseethis.com>

Wide range of fun educational videos.

Crest Awards

<https://www.crestawards.org>

Science awards you can complete from home.

iDEA Awards

<https://idea.org.uk>

Digital enterprise award scheme you can complete online.

Big History Project

<https://www.bighistoryproject.com/home>

Aimed at Secondary aged children offering multi-disciplinary activities.

Geography Games

<https://world-geography-games.com/world.html>

Geography gaming!

The Artful Parent

<https://www.facebook.com/artfulparent/>

Good, free art activities.
